LOCAL MATTERS.

DESPERATE CONFLICT BETWEEN POLICEMEN AND AN EX-CONVICT .- Sunday morning between 9 and 10 o'clock Sergeant Dab. Wren, ty Company were well attended, and at each near the corner of Seventeenth and Washington streets, met up with Henry Sims, a Sergeant attempted to arrest Sims, but be turned and fled towards the Old Market. dressed in citizen's clothes, gave chose and Dutch songs and dances are superb.

overtook the fugitive, seized him by the collar, and threw him. Before Wren could but he jerked away and hurled a brick, which struck Michaels between the shoulders and knocked him down. At this time Wren was going around the square to head off the fugitive, and was running along Poplar stree when be saw Sims approaching from the opposite direction. The latter down. Wrea came up, and reaching his render. Supposing he had done so, he reaching over the fence struck the officer a violent blow on the back of the head. The blow irflicted a severe scalp wound and stunned Wren, but he steadied himself by the fence and fired two ineffectual shots at the enemy while in full flight. About this time Michaels, having recovered, came up and grasped the convict as he was passing through a garder. He struck Sims three times over the head with his club, having no pistol with him, and the two clinched and rolled over and over in the dirt, until Sims, being the larger and stronger, released himself and both rose. Michaels then received a blow from a brick which struck the thumb of his uplified hand, glanced against his head, and knocked him down. Sims now ran away unmolested across the railroad and over the bill toward Howard's Greve Hospital, the offi ers having lost sight of him in a building near the railroad, into which they were misdirected by another It is believed that one of Sergeant Wren's shots took effect, and it is yet expected that Sims will be captured, as the wound will betray him.

THE DULL HABEAS CORPUS CASE. - The Dull habeas corpus case was to have been tried by Judge Guigon yesterday. The prisoner was brought up to the court-room at 11 o'clock, and in the absence of Captain George D. Wise, his pertner, Mr. Robert Howard, appeared as his counsel, and Mr. Cabell was there to represent the Commonwealth. Mr. Fowlke, probably not having received the process of the court, was not present. Mr. Cabell said that the testimony elicited at the Police Court had been accurately reported in the Dispatch, and he was willing to rest I do hope you will so state it in your notice his case on that. Judge Guigon, however, expressed a desire to have Mr. Fowlkes here, so that he may be cross-questioned anew and the bearing was therefore postponed until to-morrow morning, and an officer was sent to Amelia for Mr. Fowlkes.

DEATH OF MR. JOHN HAGAN, JR .- Mr. John Hagan, Jr., died at his residence, corner of Seventeenth and Venable streets, about midnight Saturday. Mr. Hagan had been day. slightly complaining for a few weeks past, but no one supposed that he would be so suddenly taken off. The procession which escorted his remains to the cathedral and cemetery was a very large one, persons of all denominations participating. The funeral took place from St. Peter's cathedral. The services were conducted by the Rev.

Bishop Gibbons. The Rev. Father delivered an appropriate address, and alluded in terms of eulogy to the deceased. The body, enclosed in a bandsome metallic casket, was conveyed from the cathedral and deposited in the hearse by the pall-bearers, who were Captain William English, Messrs. John Ahern, Francis J. Reilley, Joseph L. Whittaker, Joseph Augustine, Patrick Brannan, and Kendall O'Dwyer. Mr. Hagan was a well-known citizen, a registrar in Jefferson Ward, and at one time a member of the City Committee and City School Board.

RELEASED ON HIS OWN RECOGNIZANCE .-George T. Dobbins, who has been in jail for several months charged with cutting Michael Welsh, another sailor, was yesterday released on his own recognizance to appear for indictment at the November term of the Hustings Court. Judge Guigon intimated his purpose to discharge Dobbins unless the witnesses appeared against him at the time

THE ALLEGED INTIMIDATION CASE. - Yesterday morning Deputy Marshal Nye arrested in Petersburg and brought before Commis-sioner A'kins bere Alexander Vaugbun, who is charged with attempting by violence to intimidate from testitying James E. COMPANY F, FIRST VIRGINIA, AND OUR WASHINGTON LIGHT INFANTRY-ARRI-VAL OF THE VISITORS YESTERDAY-HOW THEY SPENT THE DAY-PARADE

Yesterday, for the first time since the late civil war, a southern military organization honored the national capital with a visit. The visiting militia was Company F, First Regiment of Virginia Volunteers, of Richmond, numbering about forty-five men, rank negro convict, who some time ago escaped amusement. We attended, and must say and file, and accompanied by the First Virfrom a gang at work in the mountains. The der the leadership of Captain Louis Voelker. They are a fine-looking set of young men, and as gentlemen are a credit to their city. They are under the command of Captain M. T. Clarke, with Lieutenants J. A. Pizzini, Sergeants Robert Gilliam, Henry Tyler, and John D. Redford. Their uniform, which is very handsome, consists of a gray cutaway coat with black trimmings and facings, with epaulets to match, gray pants with broad form, though they also brought with them the usual fatigue suit:

THEY LEFT RICHMOND on Saturday night on the 11:05 train of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac railroad, and arrived in this city promptly at 5:20 o'clock yesterday morning. They were ington Light Infantry Corps, Captain W. G. Moore commanding, acting as a committee of reception, and escorted to the armory of vania avenue near Sixth street, where they stacked their arms and were furnished with refreshments; after which they proceeded to the Metropolitan Hotel, where quarters had been engaged for them. After breakfasting RICHMOND POST-OFFICE OCTOBER 19, 1874 .- they disposed of themselves in various ways, some attending church, others visiting their Gwathmey, Fourth Baptist church, Rieb- friends and acquaintances in the city, but most of them were individually taken in hand by the members of the Washington Light Infantry and District citizens and Va.; Mr. J.
